Purpose

To confirm Algonquin College's commitment to providing accessible education in compliance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) and related legislation.

Scope

This directive applies to all learners, faculty, and staff involved in the delivery of real estate training programs. These programs include the Real Estate Salesperson Program, consisting of the Pre-Registration Phase and the Post-Registration Phase, and the Real Estate Broker Program, offered through Algonquin College.

Directive

Algonquin College maintains a College-wide accessibility policy for learners (AC01 - Academic Accommodation for Accessible Learning) that affirms its obligations under the AODA and other relevant legislation. This policy governs all programming, including real estate training programs .

This directive shall be reviewed at least annually and whenever the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) or its regulations are amended.
